Re: US v. Mario Stewart
Docket No. 7:23-cr-00361-KMK
Motion for Permission to Travel

Dear Judge Karas:

I am counsel to the Defendant, Mario Stewart, in connection with the above-referenced criminal action.

Counsel respectfully moves this Court for permission for Mr. Stewart, his wife, Nyaca Stewart, and their children, to travel on a cruise to three Caribbean Islands, Aruba, Bonaire and Curacao to celebrate his wife's impending retirement. Mr. Stewart and his family would be driving from New York to the cruise port in Miami, Florida beginning on July 11, 2024 with one overnight stay at 313 Bream Circle, Poinciana, Florida 34759. The cruise will be a total of eight (8) days; and upon returning to the port in Florida, the family will drive back to New York with an approximate return date of July 23, 2024. Mr. Stewart will keep counsel advised should the family return prior to July 23, 2024. For the Court's ease of reference, enclosed herewith is a copy of the Stewart Family's proposed travel itinerary.

In addition, Mr. Stewart respectfully requests this Court to grant permission for the retrieval of his passport being held at Pre-Trial Services at Southern District of New York as it is required for the aforesaid trip. Since he needs to renew the passport prior to its expiration in October 2024, he requests that he be permitted to renew the passport upon his return from the family trip and thereafter return the new passport to Pre-Trial Services.

Thank you in advance for your consideration and attention to the herein requests on behalf of Mr. Mario Stewart and his family. AUSA Hoffman is copied hereto for his review and consent.

WHEREFORE, defense counsel respectfully requests that this Court grant Defendant's letter motion for the relief stated herein.

In light of the consent of the Pre-Trial Services Office and the US Attorney's Office, the application is granted.

So Ordered.

6/26/24

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kevin T. Conway, Esq. (KC-3347)
